

Baristas to join growing social enterprise

STREAT are looking for talented baristas who are seeking a bit more purpose from their craft. Potential to work across multiple sites alongside all our amazing team.

- Join a professional, multi-site hospitality group with a positive culture
- Contribute to the success of a leading social enterprise
- Infect those around you with your awesomeness

STREAT is a Melbourne-based social enterprise that operates its hospitality enterprises to fund and support hospitality training for young people who need a hand. Quality coffee and social justice are our biggest passions!

We operate a number of successful inner city cafes and kiosks, offering specialty coffee from our roastery, and delicious items from our artisan bakery and production kitchen. We're always looking for experienced baristas and customer service superstars to join us on this journey.

Successful candidates must display the following qualities:

- Warmth, friendliness and professionalism
- A focus on providing an exceptional and engaging customer experience
- A passion for coffee, good food and a desire to increase knowledge in these areas
- The ability to work quickly and cleanly whilst maintaining quality
- The desire to work collaboratively within a growing social enterprise
- Interest in imparting your hospitality knowledge onto our trainees in a supportive environment

Duties will include:

- Utilising professional hospitality skills in a high volume takeaway environment
- Being a champion of hospitality and acting as a constant role model for the young people in our training program

Experience preferred:

- A minimum of 2 years
- Working knowledge of food safety standards
- Before starting work a Working With Children check will be required

If you feel that you have the qualities to join a progressive and motivated hospitality team dedicated to helping stop homelessness please apply via Scout or submit your CV and cover letter directly to jobs@streat.com.au
